

K-LOVE is the one station I listen to EVERYDAY because of its uplifting music and message. Thousands of listeners in this community would be deprived of the family-friendly programing we enjoy if a new LPFM station took its place. It is in the best interest of the public to keep stations like K-LOVE on the air in order to instill family values and offer encouragement to those in the listening area.